The Paradoxical Commandments by Kent M. Keith (1968) (Also known as Anyway)

People are illogical, unreasonable and self-centred. Love them anyway.
If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. Do good anyway.
The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.
Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable. Be honest and frank anyway.
The biggest men and women with the biggest ideas can be shot down by the smallest men and women with the smallest minds. Think big anyway.
People favour underdogs but follow only top dogs.
Fight for a few under dogs anyway.
What you spend your life building may be destroyed overnight. Build anyway.

People really need help but may attack you if you love them. Love them anyway.
Give the world the best you have and you will get kicked in the teeth.
Give the world the best you have anyway.

Bishop Fintan will lead a group of fifty young people (18 to 30 years) to Rome this summer from the 28th July to the 4th August for Jubilee of Youth Pilgrimage. It is a once in a life opportunity for our young people to not only meet the Pope, to experience the Eternal City, but also to be encouraged and inspired as they meet other young people of faith from all continents. The pilgrimage will cost €550 per person (plus fundraising) and will include seven nights half board at the Irish College, Travel Insurance, a 20Kg bag, and a pilgrim kit.
