Procession to the Lourdes Grotto in Glanmire

Thank you to the many people who turned out for the 75th annual May Procession to the Lourdes Grotto in Glanmire village on Sunday last. Procession was led by Bishop Fintan Gavin. Fr Pat Fogarty welcomed Bishop Fintan, Fr Christy Fitzgerald, Deacon David Lane, Fr Bernard Cotter, grand nephew of the late Fr Jack Bernard who was P.P. in Glanmire and involved in the building of the Grotto, Fr Martin Barry who as a young boy carried a banner in the first Procession and Bro Hassett from the Brothers of Charity Lota who donated the land to build the Grotto.

In his homily, Fr. Bernard encouraged us, like his grand uncle, Fr Jack Bernard before him did, to 'Run the race, keep the Faith and win the prize!'

Celebration was greatly enhanced by our parish choir, children's choir from St Joseph's School, Riverstown, Carrigaline Pipe Band and the trumpet player for Benediction.

Thanks to St. John's Ambulance, the local Gardaí and everyone else who helped in so many ways in this great Glanmire tradition. It is wonderful to see all the windows with Mary along the route - see some in the pics.

Great credit to the Grotto Committee for all their hard work in the background - continuing on from those local people with horses and carts who built this Lourdes Grotto in 1949.

We remember all those who participated down the years who could not be with us today and those who are no longer with us.

Rosary at the Grotto continues each evening at 7.30 pm.

Baptism: We welcome Freddie John Joe Liam O'Mahony who was baptised recently into the faith community.

Death

We offer our prayers and sincere sympathy to the family, relatives and friends of Mary McCarthy whose funeral took place on Monday last. May she have eternal peace. Amen

2nd Collection today is the Diocesan collection for Mission and Ministry.
