The Rosary Beads.

Maria visited a care home for the elderly that was run by a Catholic association. One day she and a colleague called Roberta met Aldo, a tall, very cultured and very wealthy man. Aldo looked sternly at the two young women and said, 'Why do you always come here? What do you want from us? Why don't you just let us die in peace?' Maria didn't lose heart and told him, 'We are here for you, to spend some time together, to get to know each other and become friends.' They continued to visit the home regularly. Roberta recounts, 'That man was particularly closed in on himself and dejected. He did not believe in God.

Maria was the only one who was able to get close to him, gently listening to him for hours. She prayed for him and, on one occasion, gave him a rosary beads which he accepted.' Later, Maria learnt that he had spoken her name as he was dying. The pain of his death was lessened by the fact that he died peacefully, holding the rosary she had given him.

Cemetery Masses.

Annual Mass in Ballylucra Cemetery will take place on Wednesday 10th July at 7.30 pm and Rathcooney Cemetery on Tuesday 16th July at 7.30 pm.

PRAYER BEFORE AN EXAM

God be with me as I take this exam. Keep my mind alert and my memory sharp. Calm my nerves and help me to concentrate. I know that you walk with me, guiding my path and inspiring my heart. I pray that I will feel you with me; and that your friendship would soften the pressure I feel. Help me to do the best that I can. I ask this for my fellow students too, at home and across the world. That we might all go on to new things with you. Amen

Baptisms: We welcome Brío Donie Byrne and Naoise Thomas Whitmore Ackland who were baptised recently into the faith community.

2nd Collection next weekend is for Peters Pence.
