A word of Gratitude

We the priests of the Parish, Fr Pat Nugent, Fr Martin Barry and I would like to express our sincere gratitude to you for your ongoing kindness, support, prayers and immense generosity to us over the past year. We are most grateful to all the volunteers who help in so many ways in building a community of justice, love and peace. We wish you all a very happy and blessed Christmas.

Fr Pat Fogarty

The Visitation

The joy we are hearing about is not just a feeling of happiness which is often short lived. Joy is different. Joy comes from being at peace with yourself in life. Of course Elizabeth and Mary feel anxious about the future, their babies and their own, but this anxiousness is overshadowed by Joy. Joy that they are doing God's will. They are totally at peace with God's will for them and have complete trust in the Lord. Nowhere is this sense of joy and peace more evident than in Elizabeth's prayer at the end of today's gospel.
